

TRENDS SHAKER

SLOW GILI AIR HOTEL

Cover Picture :

You are looking for the perfect place for dreamy holidays? We have found it! Built in the middle of a beautiful island and not too far from Bali, the Slow Gili Air hotel is a truly a haven of peace in an idyllic setting.

The story began when Christian Lechin, Julie Thonnard and Dominique Pissoort fell in love with the place. They decided to combine their expertises for the purpose of create the perfect relaxing and restful place. This is what Slow means : a place where you can slow your spirit and get back to the sense of the essential value of life.

The hotel was built satisfying local traditions. Something that the hotel's founders wanted absolutely to respect. The materials used differs between the stone (mainly from Lombok), the wood and the bamboo. The stone comes in different colors, the wood and the bamboo has been privileged for some furniture as well as for interior partition walls and garden fences.

The hotel also prioritized local handicraft skills. The exterior doors were sculpted by craftsmen from Ubud, the roofs are covered by Alang Alang and the outdoor lighting are made of « driftwood » these small branches washed onto the seashore. In regards to the decoration, it is inspired by the Wabi aesthetic characterized by the discreet refinement of unvarnished raw materials and natural essences. The founders also decided to share with the residents their wonderful collection of souvenirs that testifies their globetrotting vocation. If you are a fan of photography or not, you will also enjoy the amazing Serge Anton's photographs. Slow is simply authentic, charismatic, sober and elegant.

Slow Gili Air Hotel offers ten contemporary luxury villas with private pool and garden. The absolute dream! The villas are fully equipped and you will find your comfort for sure.

We are really impressed by the quality of the offered services. You don't want to cook? A home cooking service is available and a chef will make you discover new tastes. In your villa you will enjoy soft bed linen, silky bath towels, ergonomic mattresses from King Koi, and Angelo's branded small 100% natural soaps. What could be better?

We are just speechless by all the beauty. Heaven on earth really exists and you will find it at Gili!

For more information, have a look at the website as well as the Facebook and Instagram page.